The Office of the Federal Defender operates under the Criminal Justice Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3006A, representing indigent persons in federal criminal cases and related court matters.

Our Fresno Office Assistant Federal Defenders provide zealous, professional legal representation to indigent persons charged with misdemeanor and felony criminal offenses before the United States District Court, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, and occasionally before the United States Supreme Court. Office attorneys carry an extensive, varied caseload through all litigation stages with room to explore novel legal and factual arguments in defending our clients. Our lawyers practice at the highest levels, enjoying excellent reputations for personal and professional integrity. Our Office also boasts a collegial culture, strongly encouraging teamwork and collaborative discussion. Close to Yosemite, Kings Canyon, and Sequoia National Parks, our Office is responsible for most misdemeanor case representations originating out of these parks, including opportunities to represent clients at Yosemite National Park's federal district courthouse.

The Fresno Office currently seeks a defense attorney with criminal law or federal clerkship experience. Spanish fluency is a plus. Immediate responsibilities include managing a sizeable caseload with cases at varying litigation stages; appearing on behalf of clients in court hearings and other related proceedings; developing litigation strategies; preparing pleadings, briefs, and motions; meeting with clients, experts, witnesses, and family members; and other duties as assigned. Applicants must have excellent legal writing and oral advocacy skills, computer-assisted legal research proficiency, the ability to work in a collaborative team environment, and effective organizational skills with the ability to set priorities.

Fresno, located in the heart of the Central Valley and California's fifth largest city, is a vibrant, diverse community offering affordable housing, farmers' markets, a lively arts scene, a minor league baseball team, and a growing "Ale Trail" of craft breweries. Fresno is conveniently located only hours away from Paso Robles's award-winning wineries, California's beautiful central coast, San Francisco, and Los Angeles.

All applicants must either be admitted to the State Bar of California or be a member in good standing of another state's bar and be admitted to the California Bar within two years of starting. Three or more years of experience in criminal law preferred. Please describe motion, trial, and appellate experience. Indicate any other-than-English language proficiencies. Must be a U.S. citizen or legal permanent resident applying for U.S. citizenship. Selected candidate will be subject to a background check as an employment condition.

This position is a full-time permanent position with federal salary based on qualifications and experience.
